

COVID Extension Plan for 2022

- Instructor/Faculty status will continue to be current
  - Teaching requirements suspended for another year
- Instructor Candidates time to first teaching experience is extended
- Extensions for Providers
  - <https://www.facs.org/quality-programs/trauma/atls/resources>

For Providers expiring between 12/31/2021
and 12/31/2022

- If you take an ATLS Course, the 4-year continuation of status applies
  - If you successfully completed the 14-question Content Review already, you will automatically be given another one-year extension (e.g., Expire 3/15/2022, New expiration 3/15/2023). You will be sent an official Certificate of Extension to your email address on file, the first week of the month prior to your current expiration date.*
-

For Providers
expiring
between 12/31/2021
and 12/31/2022

---

If you took ATLS in 2018, and it was the 10th Edition, you will automatically be given a one-year extension (e.g., Expire 3/15/2022, New expiration 3/15/2023).

---

You will be sent an official Certificate of Extension to your email address on file, the first week of the month prior to your current expiration date.

For Providers expiring between 12/31/2021 and 12/31/2022

- If you took ATLS in 2018, and it was the 9th Edition:
    - you will need to take the 14-question Content Review prior to receiving a one-year extension
    - The Content Review emphasizes the changes made to the program in the 10th Edition.
    - you will be enrolled in the Content review the first week of the month prior to your expiration date (e.g., Expire on 3/15/2022, Enrollment during the first week of February).
    - Once you successfully complete the Content Review, you will be sent an official Certificate of Extension to your email address on file, within 5-10 business days.
- 